Some things that make us the better choice...

Proudly Independent Most funeral homes and cemeteries in this region have been sold to multi-national conglomerates. We remain independent and locally owned. Our service mission is never compromised by accountability to far-off stockholders, we're accountable to you. We're longtime residents of the local community and know that the reputation we build by serving well is our greatest asset.

Uniquely Personal Many firms promote packaged services and some even market brand named funeral offerings. Packaged services can simplify your choices and potentially save you money; however these service packages often include items you don't need or may not want. This "grouping" of items can artificially inflate advertised savings. Our staff members will listen carefully to your wishes. We will offer you a wide range of selections that fit both your emotional and financial needs, and we will respect your right to make a decision without undue influence.

Value Priced We encourage families to carefully compare price and value when selecting a funeral provider. Other advertised prices may not reflect complete services, and many firms that advertise low prices do so by cutting corners with procedures, facilities, and staff. Beck's Funeral Home is an attractive and comfortable facility that can accommodate a variety of service types, whether your needs are simple or elaborate. Our staff members are the most capable, caring, and well trained professionals in the region. When comparing Beck's to other funeral homes in the area you will find we offer the best value and the best price.

Satisfaction Guarantee We know that every time someone places their trust in us to provide service, we have an obligation to prove we are worthy. We take that obligation seriously. A 2005 survey of Puget Sound consumers by a respected independent consumer research foundation, rated Beck's Funeral Home as the only funeral firm in the region to achieve a 100% rating of overall client satisfaction. As a policy of our firm, if you are dissatisfied with any of our professional services or facilities, we will reduce or eliminate the charge for that item.
